Situated on a quiet cul-de-sac in the coveted Vail Golf Course neighborhood, this remarkable single-family residence defines timeless elegance, sophistication and convenience. Just east of Golden Peak, ride the free Town of Vail bus or walk a flat scenic street to world class skiing on Vail Mountain, the prestigious Ford Park and Amphitheater, endless hiking and biking and amenities of Vail Village. With its stunning design by renowned architect, Kyle Webb, and meticulous attention to detail, this home is a testament to fine craftsmanship and quality construction. A warm blend of natural materials and clean lines creates both a striking sense of entry and inviting interior. Boasting five generously- sized bedrooms, each with its own luxurious en-suite bathroom, this residence provides an ideal floorplan for you and your guests. The fifth bedroom has space for a family or game room and is complete with a kitchenette; perfect for accommodating extended family or friends. It’s an ideal space with its own entrance, patio and washer and dryer; offering endless possibilities. An additional room on the upper level with its own patio offers yet more sleeping space or may function as an office, playroom or library. A gourmet kitchen offers Viking, Dacor, Miele and Sub Zero appliances, additional prep sink, wine refrigerator, second dishwasher and double ovens. Whether you’re hosting an intimate gathering or preparing a culinary masterpiece, this kitchen is sure to inspire your inner chef and entertainer. Step outside onto the spacious deck, an extension of the kitchen and great room, and soak in the breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains. Create splendid meals with the built-in grill and prep area and dine al fresco before a short stroll to a summer concert. Experience this home and see why some of Vail’s founders chose and stayed in this area for decades.
