Welcome to 3816 Lupine Drive, this one-of-a-kind luxury home nestled in a breathtaking hillside alpine setting with expansive views towards the Gore Range. Surrounded by pine and aspen forest, this residence was exceptionally built and thematically designed throughout, emphasizing the craftsmanship and stunning log features, creating a true mountainside retreat. Sitting on just shy of an acre, the residence offers unmatched privacy and natural beauty, with a mix of perennial gardens and lush native vegetation backing up to National Forest. The property features winding stone paths ascending above the house with three stone terraces each offering stunning views of the Gore Range Valley. The large, heated outdoor terrace creates a private oasis complete with custom cascading water feature, oversized fire pit, and hot tub. Meticulously curated featuring large windows with mountain views, high vaulted ceilings, chef's kitchen, and a custom, state-of-the-art home theater. The thoughtfully designed layout offers multiple gathering spaces and five bedrooms with custom finishes, creating an experience of warmth and opulence throughout. Located steps to the Gore Creek bike path and the Town of Vail bus route, providing ease of access to skiing and Vail Village. The lot has additional GRFA for potential of additional square footage, subject to review and approval by Town of Vail. This rare estate epitomizes mountain traditional log design, combining privacy and convenience.
